

NEWSLETTER JUNE 2018

I'm sure you are all aware that our speaker next week is Jean Littlejohn and I expect there will be a 'full house' to hear Jean talking about her 'Personal Pathways into Stitch' - and those lucky members who managed to get a place on her workshop on Friday are in for a treat!

Unfortunately, Caroline's felting workshop had to be cancelled - again! This has been rearranged for Saturday 30th June. I'm pleased to report that Caroline is feeling much better now. Alison has contacted everyone on the list to confirm that they can attend on the new date, and there may be a couple of spaces left - so see Alison at the meeting if you would like to do the workshop.

Coming up this month - Sutton Coldfield Art Trail Saturday and Sunday 23 and 24th June. There will be some flyers at the meeting or you can find out about it on the website www.suttoncoldfieldarttrail.wordpress.com

At the Midland Arts Centre, Cannon Hill Park, the 62 Group exhibition 'Ctrl/Shift', starts on 21st July until 9th September. The Festival of Quilts will be at the NEC from 9-12th August. A bit further afield at Southwell Workhouse, Nottinghamshire, NG25 0PT, Second Turning Textile Group have an exhibition 'Struggle for Suffrage', on until 30 October.

IMPORTANT!!! I emailed several members who had not put their name on the list for the FREE workshop by Viv Arthur and Art Van Go in September, but have only had a few replies. PLEASE LET ME KNOW ASAP if you want to do the workshop as at this Thursday meeting we will be letting people know if they have a place and on which day. I need your reply BEFORE the meeting, please. Those not able to take the workshop - or may not wish to do so - will be given a voucher to spend at Art Van Go.

I look forward to seeing many of you on 7th June.

And keeeeeeeppp stitching!!!

Pauline
