

NEWSLETTER NOVEMBER 2017

Well..... What can I say? Our exhibition was a huge success and we had around 240 visitors and many wonderful comments! I'm guessing but I think this exhibition was about the 20th we've held in Sutton if we include all the exhibitions we had when we were the Embroiderers' Guild. Personally I think this was our best ever exhibition - every single piece deserved to be there! Isn't it lovely to find out your fellow members produce such beautiful work? Well Done, everyone who exhibited and everyone who contributed in any way to making it so successful. On that note, Caroline, who has 'masterminded' everything for the last 3 exhibitions, is now standing down as Chair of the Exhibition Committee and we need someone to step into her shoes. Please think about volunteering for this important role.

At Thursday's meeting there will be 'feedback' form for you to indicate your thoughts and experiences about the exhibition. This is very useful when planning the next exhibition so we can add or make improvements in areas which you think we could do better. When all the finances have been sorted and the feedback received, Caroline will be reporting on the exhibition at our meeting in January 2018.

Our Speaker on Thursday is Claire Muir, who has visited us before, and will be continuing her 'Fascinating Journey on Hats, Flowers and Fascinators'. I can't be there this week but I'm sure you'll have a lovely evening.

On Saturday 4th there will be a workshop with Emily Notman. There are still a few places left so sign up on Thursday if you love hand sewing.

AND keeeeeppp stitching!!!
